

Academic Performance Scholarship

HO YUE HO

Associate of Science in Information Systems Development

Yue Ho scores a high GPA in all past semesters and has been placed on the President's List. When asked for the secret of his good academic performance, Yue Ho revealed, "IT is a subject requiring creative solutions and innovations. Keeping my mind open to everything in life helps my study of IT. There are many wise things from other aspects of life that I can apply to my study of IT." For this reason, Yue Ho is an active participant in many extra-curricular activities outside the College. He has held various positions in volunteer societies like the East Kowloon Youth Society, at different stages as helper, organizing committee member and adviser.