

Outstanding Student Leader Award

LAM WING MAN

Associate of Science in Airport Operations and Aviation Logistics

For Isabella's good leadership and self-initiated efforts in organizing student activities, the teacher nominated her for this award "with a sense of pride and satisfaction". Isabella is the President of the students' Aviation Society. In organizing the Orientation Camp and Orientation Night, the two major events each year, Isabella said she aimed for high quality. She said she had to give all new students "an interesting and unforgettable experience so that they could happily start their long journey of study in this College".
