

Sports Scholarship for Elite Athletes

WONG CHEUK YIN

Associate of Science in Creative and Interactive Media Production

Cheuk Yin is a keen sportsman, and his favourite sport is Taekwondo. He learnt taekwondo since he was 4 years old. During his secondary studies, he was a team member of the school's volleyball team. When he was 15, he won the second runner up in the Hong Kong Taekwondo Poomsae Competition. Due to his excellent performance, he was selected for the Hong Kong Taekwondo Poomsae Team. In the team, he participated in many competitions and obtained remarkable performances which include 2017 11th CK Classic International Open Taekwondo Championships Malaysia (2nd runner-up), 2016-17 National Taekwondo Popular Series Final (1st runner-up), 2018 the 22nd Asian Cities Taekwondo Championships (Champion) and 2019 US Open Taekwondo Championships (2nd runner-up). In 2018, he became a part-time athlete sponsored by Hong Kong Sports Institute.